Presidents of MLAs

Dear President

Assembly Meetings 2018 and 2019

Happy New Year to you and your Colleagues

Assembly Meeting: London 9 November 2018

I wanted to confirm to you the arrangements that are taking place for the Assembly meeting next year in case you and your members want to make advanced plans.

The Assembly meeting will take place on the morning of 9 November 2018 in the IMO building on the south side of the River Thames at 4 Albert Embankment near Lambeth Bridge, and not far from the Westminster Tube Station. (You will need to cross over the Westminster or Lambeth Bridge).

A light lunch will be provided afterwards.

On the previous night, Thursday 8 November, CMI members will be able to attend the British Maritime Law Association annual dinner which will be held at Inner Temple.

It is also hoped that whilst the Executive Council is holding its all day meeting on Thursday the 8 November, there will be International Sub-Committee meetings on that day and possibly also during the afternoon of the 9 November. Further details will be provided as soon as possible.

Anyone attending the CMI Assembly meeting will need to make their own accommodation arrangements in London.

Once the complete program has been determined you will receive further information and details of how you should book to attend the BMLA dinner and attendances at the Assembly meeting. It is anticipated, in relation to the IMO's strict security controls, you will need to advise the CMI of the details of those who are attending well in advance of the meeting.

CMI Colloquium: Mexico 2019

As you may know if you were present in Genoa, the Assembly voted to hold a Colloquium in Mexico City in 2019.

Please note that the tentative dates for that Colloquium are 29 September to 2 October 2019.

As yet no bookings have been made but I will let you know as soon as that has taken place and the dates are firm.

Yours faithfully

Stuart Hetherington
